Asks Platform to Back Ruling on Districting

By EDMOND LEBRETON

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — The Supreme Court decision that states must allot all their legislative seats by population should be strongly backed by the Democratic National Convention, the mayor of St. Louis told platform writers today.

The recommendation by Mayor Raymond R. Tucker brought into the open at convention preliminaries a party and section-splitting issue in which Congress is embroiled. But many party delegates hoped to keep it out of the presidential campaign.

Tucker led a delegation of mayors testifying on urban problems. He told the platform committee he is personally "greatly elated" at the high court's ruling that both houses of state legislatures must be apportioned by population, so that voters in one area do not enjoy a disproportionate advantage over those in another.

He said he would like to see the platform contain "a strong statement clearly backing the Supreme Court decision."

But the House passed Wednesday, 218-175, a bill that would strip federal courts of jurisdiction in reapportionment cases.

This measure now is pending in the Senate, which is also stalled over another proposal to delay court-ordered reapportionment. Proposed constitutional amendments to overturn the decision are on page three.

Blood Mobile Returning to Hope Sept. 21

One month from today, September 21, the Blood Mobile will return to Hope for its second visit. The Hempstead County Red Cross chapter voted to join the program last spring and the first visit was June 9th.

Only a few more than 50 persons gave blood that day and up to August 15, more than 160 pints had been used by the local blood bank for Hempstead County citizens.

The county is using three for every one it gives. This must be equated to continue the program. Mabel Ward, local chairman has placed Haskell Jones in charge of this visit. He is seeking pledges from groups and individuals. If you will give this time, call Haskell Jones at PR 7-3601.

He will enter your pledge and you will be called and given a time to report. The hours will be from 1:30 to 8:30 p. m. Replacement blood is badly needed. Will you help Hempstead County do its fair share?

Says Faubus Using Civil Rights Issue

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Republican gubernatorial candidate Winthrop Rockefeller said Thursday at Denver, Colo., that Gov. Orval E. Faubus is attempting to capitalize on the civil rights issue.

Rockefeller was in Denver attending a Republican training course for gubernatorial candidates.

Rockefeller said civil rights is an active issue in Arkansas and said Faubus has capitalized on it "term after term after term."

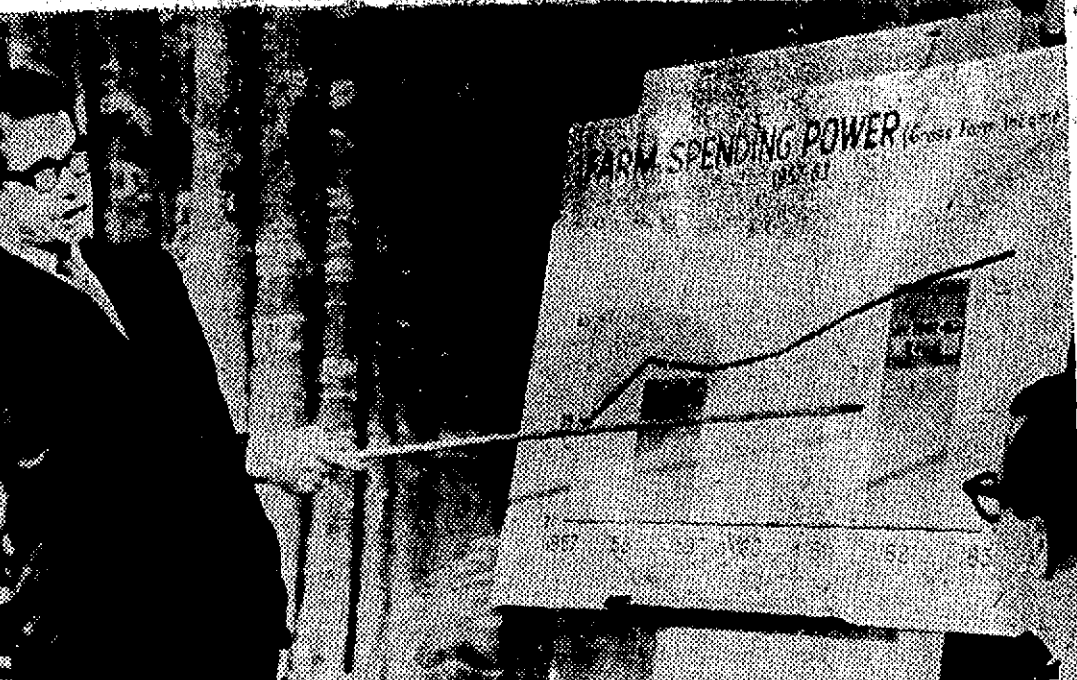

"I believe that if the issue is dealt with fairly and squarely," Rockefeller said, "we are going to find that it is not as much of an issue as he would like to make it."

Rockefeller said he was a moderate in the field of race relations and said he has been active in the field for a number of years.

He added: "I do not believe that the inflammatory rumors that what would happen if I were elected governor will hold water as the people get to know me better and have had a chance to ask me specific questions."

Pilot Held by Communists Well Treated

TOKYO (AP) — Lt. Everett Alvarez Jr., the U.S. pilot captured Aug. 5 by the Communist North Vietnamese, reportedly has sent a letter saying he is well treated.

North Vietnam's radio station at Hanoi said today that Alvarez sent the letter to his wife, Tanea, in San Jose, Calif.

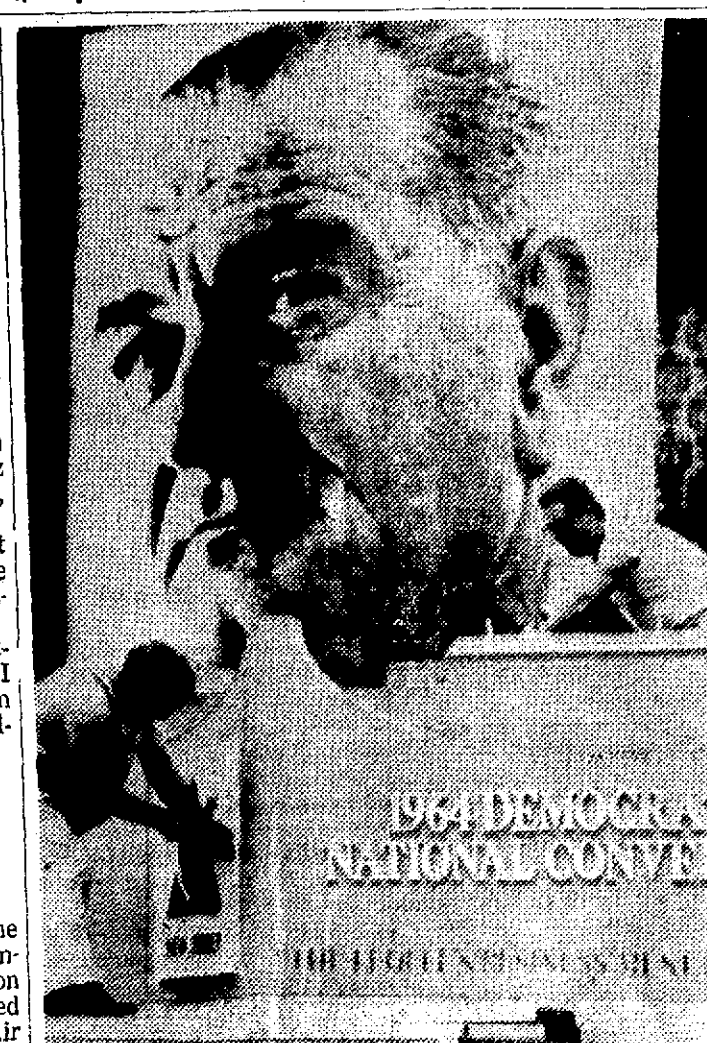

Alvarez's plane was shot down by ground fire during the U.S. air strikes on North Vietnamese patrol boat bases.

The broadcast quoted his letter as saying: "Up to now I have been well treated. I am adequately clothed and sheltered."

Republicans in State Kicking Up Family Fuss

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three leading Arkansas Republicans, strong backers of Sen. Barry Goldwater for president, challenged Thursday Winthrop Rockefeller's claim that he heads Goldwater's Arkansas campaign.

E. E. Barber Jr. of Fort Smith, one of the challengers, said he could not support Rockefeller's candidacy for governor. Barber said he would vote for Gov. Orval E. Faubus, the Democratic candidate, in the Nov. 3 general election.

Mrs. Bryant Pake of Little Rock and William L. Spicer of Fort Smith said they did not see how they could support Rockefeller.

All three issued statements critical of Rockefeller. "The dispute flared anew after the disclosure Wednesday that Barber and Mrs. Pake, chairman and co-chairman of the Draft Goldwater for Arkansas Organization, resigned last May amid an intra-party battle with Rockefeller."

Since that time Rockefeller had appeared to have control of the party, despite frequent rifts with GOP state chairman Spicer.

Discrepancy in Bank at Texarkana

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — The Federal Bureau of Investigation filed a complaint here today that a vice president of the State National Bank made a false entry in bank records, involving nearly a quarter of a million dollars.

The complaint was filed before U.S. Commissioner Thelma Winham against Roy J. Wright, 43. A warrant was issued for Wright's arrest.

The complaint charged that on August 6, Wright made a false entry in the bank's records on a state clearing account, purporting to reflect a balance for the state of $1,927,366.

It said the correct balance in the account on that date was actually $2,171,153, a discrepancy of $243,786. The complaint charges the entry was made with intent to deceive or defraud the bank.

Stuart Wilson chairman of the board of directors, and W. H. Kelley, president said there would be no loss to the bank since the institution had ample insurance.

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Officials of the State National Bank said Thursday that a discrepancy had been discovered in the records of the bank and that an investigation was under way.

Stuart Wilson, chairman of the board of directors, and W. H. Kelley, president declined to say how large the discrepancy was.

They said however, that it was covered by insurance and that there would be no loss to the bank.

They declined to give further details.

Wilson and Kelley made their comments in reply to queries by the Texarkana Gazette.

Party Leaders Clash Anew on Policy in Asia

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a political battlefield ranging from Capitol Hill to the Pentagon the Johnson administration clashed anew with Republicans over its Southeast Asian and defense policies.

The fresh outbreak of sharp skirmishing reinforced belief the presidential campaign, still not officially under way, may turn into a long, hot autumn.

The Defense Department and Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield led the administration counterattack Thursday. And GOP congressional leaders accused the government of pursuing a "no win" policy in South Viet Nam in an effort to postpone tough decisions until after the election.

The Pentagon issued a long statement challenging in detail data and statements of GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater on future U.S. nuclear capability.

On Wednesday, Goldwater repeated and elaborated on his previous charge that it present defense policies continue American "deliverable nuclear capacity may be cut by 90 per cent" in the 1970s.

"It is false and, if the senator would trouble to inform himself, he would learn that it is false," the Pentagon retorted in its statement, which it said was issued after consultation with the Atomic Energy Commission.

Goldwater has argued that the administration is phasing out manned bombers in favor of missiles, which Goldwater said carry much lighter nuclear loads than bombers.

The Pentagon denied a "wholly unjustified" that manned bombers are to be phased out.

GOP leaders in the Senate and House, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen and Rep. Charles A. Halleck, followed up the Goldwater blasts at the administration with one of their own.

Their statement, read at a news conference, contended "there has been no satisfactory explanation" why the President announced the U.S. naval air strikes at the North Vietnamese PT boat fleet before the attack was under way. Two U.S. planes were shot down.

Both Dirksen and Halleck said the South Viet Nam war "continues to go from bad to worse" and is beginning "to resemble the incredible 'no-win' war fought in Korea more than a decade ago."

In the Senate, Democratic Leader Mansfield was getting in some whacks of his own. He accused Goldwater of making "gross distortions" about the nation's nuclear capacity and of an "offhand interpretation" of administration orders to the 7th Fleet during the Gulf of Tonkin crisis.

4 Americans Killed in Viet Nam Ambush

By JOHN T. WHEELER

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Four Americans were killed and South Vietnamese troops suffered heavy losses in a Communist ambush Thursday night while the Saigon government prepared for more hostile student demonstrations.

The Americans, military advisers to a South Vietnamese infantry unit, were killed in Kien Hoa Province out of Saigon while the outfit was searching for Viet Cong guerrillas who overran the military outpost of Phu Tuc Thursday.

Guerrillas killed 7 of the 30 Vietnamese defending the Phu Tuc post and wounded 15.

The bodies of the four Americans — whose names were not immediately released — were recovered today by a relief column.

The total number of Americans killed in action in South Viet Nam stands at 185.

During the day, Buddhist students staged large rallies in the key cities of Saigon and Hue commemorating the first anniversary of bloody raids on Buddhist pagodas by the regime of the late President Ngo Dinh Diem.

Auto Union Serves a Strike Note

By GENE SCHROEDER

DETROIT (AP) — Notice has been served on the nation's auto industry that a strike will be scheduled next week against General Motors, Ford or Chrysler if negotiations for a new labor contract remain stalemated.

United Auto Workers Union officials decided Thursday in Chicago to defer until next Wednesday at a special 8 p.m. meeting in Detroit the question of whether to authorize a strike at one of the automotive industry's Big Three.

"If the companies persist in their present offers, there will be a strike," said UAW President Walter P. Reuther.

Reuther was referring to virtually-identical economic package proposals made last Monday by the auto companies.

The offer provided for higher wages, earlier retirement and larger pensions for more than half a million UAW members at automotive plants around the nation. They were promptly branded "miserably inadequate" by union leaders.

Spokesmen for the three auto companies had no comment on the union's action in postponing its selection of a strike target until next week.

When the economic proposal was made, Malcolm Denise, Ford vice president for labor relations, termed it the "most generous we've ever made to the UAW."

Reuther said next Wednesday's meeting in Detroit would review the status of negotiations at that time and receive reports on strike votes now being taken.

Then, if necessary, the board will select a strike target. In 1961, the target was GM. In 1955 and 1958, it was Ford.

"We do not want a strike and we shall continue to make every good faith effort at this bargaining table to avoid a strike," said the union's international executive board.

Present UAW contracts with GM, Ford and Chrysler expire Aug. 31.

In their package proposals, the Big Three offered pay increases ranging from 18 to 36 cents an hour over a three-year period and a boost in pension payments from $2.80 a month for each year of service to $3.25.

They also proposed making 60 years the normal retirement age rather than 65.

Other provisions included adding Good Friday to the present six full-day and two half-day holidays, plus four weeks vacation pay instead of three weeks for employees with 25 years of service.

Showers Hit Sections of Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Thunderstorms and heavy showers rattled over the nation's midsection today, bringing much-needed rains and some destructive winds. And winter came to the northern Wyoming mountains.

More than an inch of rain drenched eastern Iowa, one of many areas where moisture has been critically short. At Waterloo, 2½ inches of rain came down in less than an hour. An inch and a half fell in less than half an hour at Moline, Ill.

Seventy-mile-an-hour winds swept Prairie Village, Kan., a Kansas City suburb, damaging a few trees. Gusts winds to nearly 50 miles an hour came with the heavy showers in Iowa. Earlier, a tornado was reported near Maysville, Mo., destroying some farm outbuildings. No one was injured.

A foot of snow fell Thursday in the Big Horn Mountains east of Lovell, Wyo., hampering motorists on U.S. 14-alternate and U.S. 212. The snowfall reportedly closed for a while Beartooth Pass near the northeast entrance to Yellowstone National Park.

Elsewhere today, there were a few showers over Florida and Texas and light rains fell along the North Atlantic Coast. The Far West, however, was under clear skies.

"DEAR ABBY"

IT'S UNDERSTANDABLE!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: Last Saturday I attended my cousin's wedding. It was a beautiful wedding, held in our church. During the ceremony the minister told the bride and groom he hoped that they would keep up their spiritual connections with the church. Then he started blawing out all the guests because they came to church only when they wanted some service performed, such as a marriage or a christening, but that they never bothered about Sunday morning services. It made the guests very uncomfortable. Do you think this was the proper time for the minister to have brought up that subject? What was the matter with him anyway?

DISGUSTED
Dear Disgusted: He was probably captivated by his captive audience. Forgive him, for it shall be said that even a minister becomes sorely wearied of a depleted flock.

Dear Abby: I am married to a man who divorced his first wife on the grounds of adultery. All this took place before I met him. For some reason, which I have never been able to figure out, my husband's sister has kept up her friendship with my husband's "X".

What really irritates me is having my sister-in-law bring up my husband's "X" in every conversation. I've never met the "X" and have no interest in her or her activities. How can I put a stop to it without creating a family fight?

NO FIGHTER
Dear No: Tell your sister-in-law you want no more news of your husband's "X". If she persists, X her off your list.

Dear Abby: Please tell me if I am "square" because I resent having a waitress, who is supposed to be serving us, lean on my husband's shoulder, paw him, and sit down and join us while we are dining out. I flatly refused to dine at that restaurant again. I created a crisis, but I felt justified. My husband called me a "narrow-minded snob" because I refuse to put up with that sort of monkey business. Am I wrong to feel that my husband is not on the bargain counter and I don't want pawed-over merchandise?

N. M. S.
Dear N.M.S.: Don't blame the waitress. No man has to accept everything that is dished out to him. Your husband isn't helpless. If he didn't want to be leaned on, pawed over and joined, he could discourage it. I don't know where you "dine," but I have yet to see a waitress take the liberties you describe.

NEEDS IT
Dear Needs: The same way a girl (or boy) of ANY age goes about it. First, she sees a doctor. Then she does exactly what the doctor tells her to do.

Asks Platform

clison have been introduced in both chambers of Congress.

The Republican National Convention last month adopted a platform plank calling for a constitutional amendment to allow states with two-house legislatures to apportion one house on a basis other than population.

Tucker and his fellow mayors offered a "community development plank" calling for creation of a federal department of community development, and strong federal support of housing, transportation, water resource and anti-pollution programs.

Mayor James H. J. Tate of Philadelphia, in addition to backing the proposed community development plank, urged the platform committee to come out strongly for enforcement of the new civil rights law.

The committee, trying to avoid a party-rending fight over a civil rights plank, wrestled with a problem of wording: How far could a Democratic national platform go in trusting state and local officials to carry out the federal civil rights law?

The problem of wording was before the platform committee Thursday in Atlantic City, where the Democratic National Convention opens Monday.

Gov. Carl Sanders of Georgia roused the committee to applauding enthusiasm Thursday with a plea for a civil rights plank pledging the party to support "the law of the land."

But Sanders, who personally opposed the public accommodations section of the law, also said the spirit of the law should be carried out "through local people in their own local communities, and not through fear of federal force or federal intimidation."

Later, Sanders told newsmen his idea of the proper civil rights plank is "a moderate expression that we are going to implement the law which is on the books with reason and responsibility and that we are not going to use it as a club."

Platform committee members from outside the South praised the tone of Sanders' speech as a contribution to the creation of

Can't Give Streets to Chain Store

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Fort Smith asked the Arkansas Supreme Court Thursday to overturn a chancery ruling that the city cannot give two blocks of a street to a chain store.

Fort Smith gave two blocks of Birle Avenue to the Safeway Co., Inc., because the city said the street had been abandoned and was no longer needed.

Buck Jones of Fort Smith, one of several residents who oppose the move, said he offered the city $2,500 for the street.

Chancellor Hugh M. Bland of Fort Smith ruled that the ordinance, under which the city acted, was invalid. He instructed the city commission not to close the street.

an atmosphere in which Democrats might be able to fashion a mutually agreeable civil rights plank.

But there were doubts that the formula Sanders suggested could survive debate in the committee.

The only Negro member of the committee, Rep. William L. Dawson of Illinois, sought out Sanders after his speech to shake his hand.

"With this kind of leadership in the South, there can be a new day and a new deal," Dawson told a reporter.

Dawson, a native of Georgia, would not, however, flatly predict agreement on a civil rights plank.

Another committee member, Rep. Henry S. Reuss of Wisconsin, said he is certain members of the party's liberal wing would want more recognition of the federal role in civil rights enforcement than Sanders indicated.

Sanders conferred with Southern members of the committee who have been trying to work out compromise language, and told newsmen he expects to discuss the matter further with President Johnson at a White House meeting of Southern governors this weekend. However, governors of Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama have indicated they will not attend the meeting.

ceived by Rockefeller from Dean Burch, whom Goldwater hand-picked for national GOP chairman after winning the presidential nomination at the party convention in San Francisco.

Burch's telegram asked Rockefeller to make no announcements without consultation with Burch and Goldwater's Southern regional campaign director.

This, Rockefeller said, established him as leader of Goldwater's campaign in Arkansas.

Not true, Spicer charged Thursday. He claimed to have received a telegram from Burch to the same effect. The wording of the telegram was identical.

Mrs. Pake said she resigned May 22 when "it became clear that Sen. Goldwater had been placed at the mercy of Winthrop Rockefeller in Arkansas."

"I have been a lifelong Republican but I will not support any member of the Rockefeller family for election to public office," she said.

"I don't know whether I can vote this year. I have never supported a Democrat," she said.

Barber called Rockefeller "Nelson Rockefeller's ambassador to the South," Nelson Rockefeller, Winthrop's brother, is governor of New York, and fought for the nomination Goldwater won.

"With my conservative principles I cannot support Winthrop Rockefeller in any way for governor of this great state," Barber said.

Mrs. Pake and Barber resigned after John Grenier, Goldwater's Southern campaign director before the nomination, sided with Rockefeller in a dispute which outsiders believed broke the back of his opposition in the state GOP.

The dispute was with Spicer, who declined to say definitely whether he would vote for Rockefeller in November. He said, however, that his sentiments "could be interpreted to mean" that he would not support Rockefeller unless Rockefeller sought his support.

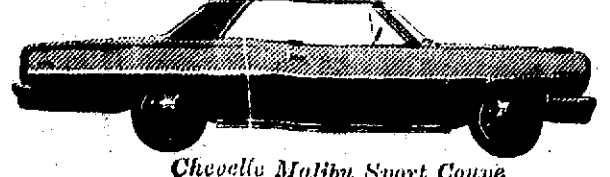

"The time is long overdue for his double-talk and start levelling with the people of Arkansas," Spicer said.

Chisox Clobber Yankees, Take Over 1st Place

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

"A bitter blow," moaned Hank Bauer.
"My thoughts of a pennant are high now," beamed Al Lopez.
"We'll be right up near the top again if . . ." said Yogi Berra hopefully.
Those were the reactions Thursday of three American League managers following a pair of games that left Chicago in first place, Baltimore without Boog Powell and New York struggling for air.
Lopez' White Sox replaced the Orioles in first place, blanking New York 5-0 for their fifth straight victory and the Yankees' fourth consecutive defeat. The Orioles' 4-3 loss to Boston dropped Bauer's boys one-half game behind the White Sox.

Chicago's vault to the top made Lopez' 56th birthday a happy one, but for Bauer and Powell there was no celebration.
The slugging left fielder broke his left wrist trying for a catch against the wall in the second inning and may be lost to the Orioles for as long as a month.

"We might as well forget him," Bauer grumbled.
So far, 31 homers and 80 runs batted in undoubtedly will be difficult. Getting a replacement will be even tougher.

The White Sox, on the other hand, are playing possibly their best ball of the season. After dropping their first 10 games with the Yankees, the Sox turned around and grabbed six of the last eight, including a sweep of this week's four-game series.

Then there's Berra, who is counting on the eight games the top two teams must play with each other. The first of four games in Chicago is on for tonight.

The tension, meanwhile, might be getting to the Yankees. Berra and infielder Phil Linz became engaged in a heated row over Linz' harmonica playing in the team bus following the latest defeat. Yankee Coach Frank Crosetti called the incident the worst he's seen in his 33 years with the team.

Back on the field, Los Angeles edged Detroit 4-3, and Kansas City defeated Cleveland 7-4 in other AL games.

In the National League, Philadelphia swept Pittsburgh 2-0 and 3-2, Cincinnati downed San Francisco 10-7 and Milwaukee knocked off Los Angeles 8-2.

The White Sox shelved Whitey Sord from the mound en route to their victory. The Yankee hurler, making his first start since Aug. 8, lasted only into the fourth inning as Chicago rapped him for nine hits.

Their two runs in the second inning, the second coming on pitcher John Buzhardt's squeeze bunt, marked their first earned runs off Sord in 46 innings.

Bob Tillman's two-run homer highlighted a four-run second inning that carried the Red Sox past the Orioles. Frank Malzone's single preceded Tillman's blast off Dave Vineyard. Pitcher Dave Morehead then doubled on the play on which Powell was hurt.

Dick Radatz came on in the eighth inning and preserved the victory for Morehead.

Detroit's Dennis McLain held the Angels to two hits through six innings, but his throwing error on a grounder hit by Selig

Contests Ballots Cast in Desha
ARKANSAS CITY, Ark. (AP) — Carl F. Mason filed suit Wednesday contesting "the validity, tabulation and certification of the ballots cast in Desha County" in the July 28 Democratic primary.

Mason, of Monticello in Drew County, lost in the primary to state Sen. Merle F. Peterson of Dumas in Desha County by 16 votes, 4,054-4,038.

The counties comprise the 21st Senatorial District.
John F. Gibson Mason's attorney said he would challenge 320 votes.

Mason requested after the election that the ballots be recounted, but the Desha County Democratic Central Committee denied the request, certified the ballot and declared Peterson the winner.

Peterson was named defendant in Mason's suit.
Mason held a 106 vote lead with only the Desha County absentee box uncounted.

Tragedy Hits Little League Series Player

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Fourteen-year-old Richard Szal flew home to his father's funeral in the early morning hours today, carrying with him a testament to courage.

Szal's father, Ludwig, 43, died Tuesday after suffering a heart attack while coaching the Masapequa Park N.Y., senior division little league baseball team, the East's representative in the league's World Series here this week.

Szal said of his father, "before he died he said to win, and that's what I'm going to do." He did just that Thursday night pitching four-hit ball in leading his teammates to a 4-3 upset victory over defending champion Monterrey, Mex.

The quiet, intense youngster stayed home long enough to make certain everything was in order. Then he flew here, arriving shortly before the game.

Massapequa meets the Des Moines, Iowa team tonight. Should the New Yorkers win, Szal is ready to take to the mound in finals Saturday.

"My mother told me the decision whether to go or not was up to me," said Szal. "There are some decisions that just can't be made for you."

Phils Increase Lead; Walk Is Fatal to Giants

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The hand-me-down and the All-Star hero sat quietly in the Philadelphia dressing room.
"It's always a thrill to hit a home run," said Frank Thomas.

"It's about time I did something good for a change," said Johnny Callison.

What Thomas and Callison did was supply all the runs as the Phillies swept a doubleheader from Pittsburgh 2-0 and 3-2 Thursday night and shot into a commanding 7½-game lead in the National League pennant race.

Thomas, acquired from the New York Mets recently, took care of the opener with a two-run homer in the ninth inning that won it for Art Mahaffey, who posted his first complete game since May 27 by clobbering the Pirates on two hits.

Callison, who won the All-Star game for the National League, took over in the second game, tying it 1-1 with his 21st homer in the sixth inning, then lashing a long sacrifice fly in the eighth inning that drove in two runs.

Trailing 3-1, the Pirates got a run back in the ninth on a single by Smokey Burgess and Bill Mazeroski's double, but Callison came through again. He grabbed Jerry Lynch's fly ball and cut down Mazeroski, trying to advance to third. That ended the threat.

The twin triumphs, coupled with Cincinnati's 10-7 victory over slipping San Francisco, added 1½ games to the Phillies' lead. The Reds, meanwhile, pulled into a tie for second with the Giants by winning their fourth straight while San Francisco lost its fifth in a row.

In the only other NL game scheduled, Denis Menke drove in three runs and Hank Aaron stroked four hits as Milwaukee belted the Los Angeles Dodgers 8-2.

The Chicago White Sox took over the American League lead by blanking the New York Yankees 5-0, Baltimore slipped to second after a 4-3 loss at Boston, Kansas City downed Cleveland 7-4 and the Los Angeles Angels edged Detroit 4-3. Minnesota and Washington were not scheduled.

Mahaffey, bringing his record to 11-6, won his duel with Bob Friend, 10-13, in the opener when Thomas homered after a single by Clay Dalrymple. Mahaffey did not allow a hit until Mazeroski singled with one out in the seventh. Roberto Clemente's ninth inning single was the only other hit.

In the nightcap Bob Bailey put the Pirates ahead 1-0 with a third inning homer off Rick Wise. Callison then tagged Don Schwall with the loss. Wise, a rookie, needed Ed Roebuck's help in the ninth inning but won his fifth game in six decisions.

The Giants led the Reds 4-3 until Deron Johnson slammed a bases-empty homer in the seventh inning. The Reds then broke it open in the eighth inning with a six-run spurt, scoring the go-ahead run when Ron Herbel issued a bases-loaded walk to Tommy Harper.

Vada Pinson followed with a two-run single, Frank Robinson singled across another run, Pinson scored on Johnson's grounder and Robinson came across on Don Pavletich's sacrifice fly.

Besides Johnson, Robinson and Leo Cardenas homered for the Reds while Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda and Del Crandall connected for the Giants. Mays' homer was his 38th.

The Braves collected 16 hits while Bob Sadowski held the Dodgers to seven hits. Milwaukee managed only three singles in the first four innings, then tagged Joe Moeller and Bob Mill for five extra base hits and five runs in the fifth and sixth.

Ron Fairly's homer accounted for both Dodger runs.

More Days of Shooting for Duck Hunters

WASHINGTON (AP) — Duck hunters in the Mississippi and Central Flyways will have more shooting days — about a 10 per cent increase — this hunting season than last and the taking of canvasback and redhead ducks will be permitted in all four flyways this year.

These and a larger bag of coots were the major changes in 1964-65 basic hunting regulations for migratory waterfowl and coots announced today by Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall.

The regulations, which were recommended by the Bureau of Sport, Fisheries and Wildlife, are intended to return about the same number of breeding ducks to nesting areas next spring as were there this year.

States may fix their duck hunting seasons within the outside dates prescribed in the federal regulations, and also may exercise the choice of seasons of consecutive hunting days or split seasons with loss of 10 per cent of hunting days.

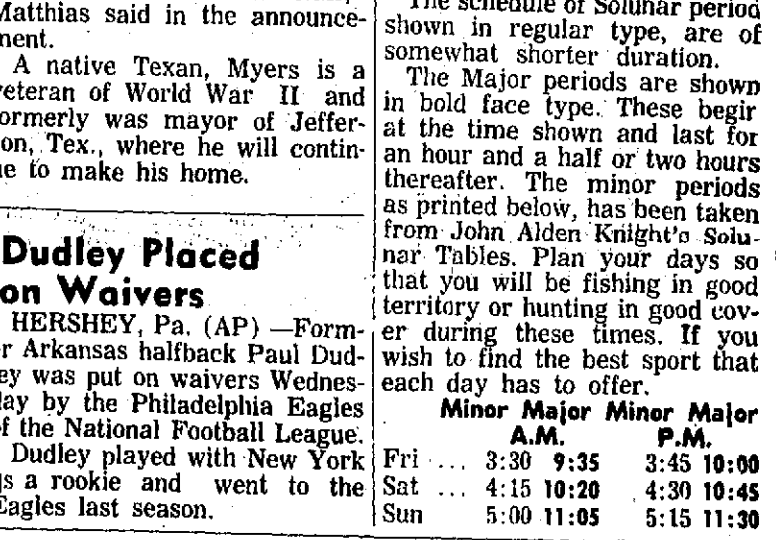

Also, in each flyway except the Mississippi options of seasons with differing bag and possession limit and of different lengths are provided.

The front will be preceded by thundershowers, beginning Friday, the bureau said.

Mild weather is forecast Saturday with increased rains, before the front moves out of the state giving way to fair skies Sunday.

Overnight low readings were expected to range from 64 to 72 tonight.

Wednesday's maximum temperatures ranged from 86 at Harrison to 96 at Fort Smith. Overnight low readings ranged from 65 at Little Rock to 73 at Texarkana.

No measurable rain was reported during the 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m. today.

Philander College Head Quits

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. Roosevelt D. Crockett, resigned today as president of Philander Smith College effective Aug. 31.

Crockett said in a statement, "There is a lack of communication as well as disharmony between the executive committee of the board of trustees and the president of the college."

"Perhaps if there had been a local professional educator or a local Negro represented in the executive committee of the board during the past three months, things might have worked out differently," he said.

He said Philander has experienced marked growth along all facets of its program during the past three years.

Philander is a four-year college operated by the Methodist Church. Crockett said his resignation was offered to the board of trustees.

Pesky Gunman Takes $50,000

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Vera Krupp, former wife of German industrialist Alfred Krupp, says a gunman posing as a pest inspector forced his way into her home and took $50,000 in cash and jewels.

Mrs. Krupp, 55, said Wednesday in Los Angeles the robber bound both her and a maid. A postman who became suspicious when no one answered the doorbell freed the two women.

Syncom 3 Clears Tricky Space Hurdle

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The space agency reported today that Syncom 3 had achieved a near-stationary orbit and said it was confident the communications package could be maneuvered into position as the world's first stationary satellite — one that hovers over a single spot on earth.

"Syncom 3 looks very good and is in near-synchronous (stationary) orbit," a statement said. "After evaluation of the data, project officials will determine what future maneuvers will be made."

Evaluation of tracking data had been delayed several hours by a balky computer at the Goddard Space Flight Center, Greenbelt, Md.

The near-stationary orbit was achieved high above Sumatra Thursday when a satellite motor fired to shift Syncom 3 out of a wide-looping path into a circular orbit where both the high and low points are about 23,000 miles.

The motor firing, triggered by a ground radio signal, also increased the spacecraft speed so that it matched that of the rotation of the earth. Thus, the satellite appears to hang almost motionless over the Sumatra area in the Indian Ocean.

It was hoped the maneuver would arrest Syncom 3 directly above the equator. However, this was not fully realized and the satellite apparently is weaving north and south across the equatorial line at a slight angle.

The angular movement can be eliminated by radio commands to small gas jets aboard the satellite. These jets also will be used to move Syncom 3 from the position above Sumatra to a stationary outpost above the Pacific Ocean intersection of the equator and International Date Line. The maneuvering is expected to take about 10 days.

In that permanent position, the satellite, which was launched Wednesday from Cape Kennedy, would be available for extensive communications experiments between stations in the United States and Asia.

Only three such satellites, equally spaced about the equator, would provide worldwide coverage.

The mid-Pacific location also was selected because Syncom 3 would be in position to relay television pictures of the Oct. 10-24 Olympic Games in Japan for distribution in North America and Europe.

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Syncom 3 "Olympic Star" satellite cleared a tricky space hurdle early today and headed for another critical maneuver later in the day.

The complex moves, controlled by radio command from the ground, are aimed at placing the spacecraft in a stationary orbit above the Pacific Ocean where it would be in position to televise the Olympic Games from Tokyo.

This afternoon, a station at

The first article about the University of Arkansas to be published in a nationally circulated periodical appeared in Scribner's Monthly Magazine in 1873, a year after the UA opened its doors to students.

Salisbury, Australia, was to trigger a small rocket aboard the satellite. The rocket was to fire a 19-second burst of energy to switch Syncom 3 from a wide-looping orbit ranging from 695 to 23,875 miles to a circular course in which both the high and low points will be about 23,000 miles up.

The action, scheduled to occur high above Sumatra, also would kick Syncom 3 into a seemingly stationary position in which it would appear to hover motionless over one area of the earth because its relative speed would match that of the earth's rotation.

This would not end the satellite's space acrobatics. For more than 10 days afterwards, ground stations are to command small jets on the spacecraft to fire at precise times to move it slowly eastward along the equator until it reaches a point above the intersection of the equator and the International Date Line.

The jets are to arrest it there so the craft would be on station for extensive communications experiments between wide areas of North America and Asia. The satellite successfully passed initial voice, radio and tape-recorder transmission tests Wednesday, shortly after it was launched.

U.S., Japanese, Canadian and European interests plan to use Syncom 3 to speed Olympic television pictures to North American and European viewers in October.

Demos Hope to Avoid Rights Split

By JOHN CHADWICK

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Democratic platform drafters were optimistic today that a party-splitting fight over a civil rights plank can be avoided.

As the platform committee moved here to wind up hearings begun in Washington, members from both the North and South spoke hopefully of reaching agreement on a generally acceptable plank.

The civil rights issue, however, may spark a sharp fight in another area — the seating of delegates from Mississippi and Alabama.

The platform drafters' optimism was due in large part to testimony by Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy that he saw no need for a platform promise to seek new civil rights laws. He said he felt the 1964 Civil Rights Act was broad enough to cover the party's 960 pledges in this field.

Civil rights leaders in their testimony emphasized enforcement of the 1964 act and legislation to provide more and better job opportunities for Negroes rather than new civil rights measures.

However, Frederick G. Dutton, the White House aide who is executive director of the platform committee, still tagged the writing of a civil rights plank as the most difficult task for the group.

The committee completed three days of hearings in Washington Wednesday and were to start taking additional testimony here this afternoon with Secretary of the Interior Seward L. Udall, Secretary of Welfare Anthony J. Celebrezze and Gov. Clifford B. Sells among the witnesses.

The hearings are to be concluded Friday and the committee hopes to finish its drafting work late Saturday or early Sunday.

Two Killed in Freak Accident

KINGMAN, Ariz. (AP) — Two persons were killed and several were injured today in a freak accident involving the Santa Fe Super Chief passenger train.

Details were scanty, but one railroad employee said a steel beam apparently fell off a passing freight train and smashed through the windows of one of the Super Chief's passenger cars.

The dead were a teen-age girl and a young woman. A girl about 3 years old was hospitalized.

Several passengers were trapped in the car by the steel beam.

All the passengers apparently were sleeping when the accident occurred just outside Kingman.

Today in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Johnson administration has urged Senate rejection of a bill passed by the House to increase veterans' pension payments by an estimated $72.6 million the first year.

Phillip S. Hughes, assistant director of the Budget Bureau, told the Senate Finance Committee Wednesday the estimate is likely to be low and that enactment of the bill "would be inconsistent with the objectives of the administration."

Veterans Administrator John S. Gleason Jr. said he went along with the administration position on the measure.

Representatives of veterans organizations testified they considered the measure modest and urged its passage.

WASHINGTON (AP) - Three American space authorities figure the Soviet Union may be ready to launch another "space spectacular."

Dr. C. Stark Draper, president of the International Academy of Astronautics, told a news conference Wednesday there are indications the Russians attempt a major launch before or during the congress Sept. 7-12 in Poland.

Concetti, director of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said "within the next few days."

Dr. Wiley, academy president, said he had been told by a British source that the Russians would "come out with something spectacular" at the Warsaw meeting.

The three would specify the possible nature of the launch.

STON (AP) - The approved Wednesday a far extension of the Food and Drug Administration's non-plus appropriation to the Welfare and Labor departments and several small agencies.

The Food for Peace bill, authorizing disposal of nearly $500 million worth of farm surpluses, now goes to the House, which is considering a companion bill.

The $7,000,000,000 appropriation goes to a Senate-House conference. Earlier this session the House voted $173,130,000 less.

THE STORY: Frank Ives is beginning to feel that things happen in Terrapin are not as they should be and after Sheriff Sam Renwick orders him out of town, Ives delays his departure to talk to a man wearing silver spurs in a nearby livery.

ears like a cat, and then the man was wiped from his mind as his look, wide sprung, assessed the girl in the doorway.

Astonishment rushed through him. This was the young woman he'd seen leaving the mercantile, the willowy, tawn-haired creature whose glance had so coolly returned his stare, unloosing a clamor of unbidden notions a man in his boots had no business at all to have.

She was not as young as he had first supposed; somewhere, he guessed, in her early thirties, clean limbed, deeply tanned, immeasurably more attractive than the image of her he had carried from their first encounter. She had sorrel hair—a bit windblown now, and the reddest lips he had ever seen—the red of crushed cherries.

"Latigo—" the way she said it held the resonance of temple bells. "I've got to ask you something."

It was like a spell the way those long-lashed eyes of hers held him. Time fell away and had no meaning. He might have stared forever had the set of her lips not turned impatient. He tried to pull himself together. "My pleasure, ma'am," he managed not to stammer, but his tone was witness of the holocaust inside him.

He was too filled with this wonder—with emotions churned by the pull of her nearness, to carry his thinking through the usual gamut of tests and checks. It was enough in these moments that he could reach out and touch her, feel the magic of her presence exploding through him like a song.

She said: "We can't talk here."

The rancher, French, took a last shifting stare at with jaws clamped shut thrust a leg across a sill and hauled the rest of him after it; tiredly growling in the knowledge that his departure had not been noticed.

This gunslick stranger wouldn't be the first to come unstuck in the iridescent orbit of a convincing woman. Helen of Troy had probably worked the same wrinkle, and Delilah had similarly fleeced Samson. A man might as well stare into the sun as get that close to Polly Renwick.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) - Eunice Kennedy Shriver, sister of the late President Kennedy, has been hospitalized in Philadelphia, but the University of Pennsylvania Hospital says her condition is satisfactory.

Her husband, Sargent Shriver, director of the U. S. Peace Corps, said he did not know the exact nature of his wife's illness. A spokesman for the hospital said tests were being made.

Mrs. Shriver, 43, became ill at Philadelphia's International Airport as she was about to board a plane for Boston after visiting a city day camp for retarded children. She is executive vice president of the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation, which contributes money to the camp.

NEW YORK (AP) - Hope Cooke, the onetime New York socialite who now is the maharani of Sikkim, has come home to show off her new baby.

The maharani arrived in New York Thursday. It was the first time she had been in the United States since she married the maharajah four years ago. The maharajah arrives today. They took separate planes as a safety measure to protect the dynasty of Sikkim.

Today, the maharani and her 8-month-old son, Prince Palden, will fly to Seal Harbor, Maine, to visit Mrs. Selden Chapin, her aunt and former guardian.

ZERMATT, Switzerland (AP) - Robert S. McNamara, secretary of defense, said today he will climb the Matterhorn Saturday, whether permitting.

McNamara has been training all week to climb the 14,701-foot mountain. He made the ascent several years ago.

The secretary's teen-age son and a Swiss guide are to go along on the climb.

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) - Six days after it was taken over, the U.S. Library and Information Center in Jogjakarta remains under Indonesian control.

An American Embassy spokesman said today Indonesian officials still are refusing to discuss the matter.

The library was seized by the semiofficial National Front Organization, which promptly closed it.

LONDON (AP) - British officials have discovered that fleas caused a serious drop in the production of a big railway carpenter shop.

An investigation was ordered when an efficiency expert discovered the 36 staff carpenters spent much of their time scratching themselves.

An official of the government-run railways made this announcement Thursday: "Questioning revealed the men were scratching because they itched. And further investigation showed they itched because they'd been bitten by something."

Further investigation revealed that the fleas came from the nine cats living in the shop.

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP) - Pakistan said today it thought the United States withdrew a $5-million loan offer because of Pakistan's relations with Communist China.

The parliamentary secretary for defense told the National Assembly that the United States withdrew the loan offer "presumably because Pakistan at present has relations with Communist China."

In Orbit by Satellite Questions

NEW YORK (AP) - Satellite buffs have got Josephine Schlosser of Brooklyn in orbit with their constant telephone calls for tracking data.

She has no tracking data. What she does have — besides a jangling telephone and jangled nerves — is the same telephone number as one for a dial-a-satellite service at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C.

And if you dial the Washington number in New York City without first dialing the Washington area code, you get the Schlosser residence.

The first of some 300 telephone calls came Tuesday night.

"Starting from 8:30 people began calling to ask about space," Mrs. Schlosser said Thursday. "When I explained that this is Brooklyn, they became annoyed. Some of them used terrible language."

The calls apparently were prompted by newspaper stories here that told of the dial-a-satellite service and gave the Washington telephone number.

The calls continued to pour into the Schlosser home at all hours Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Schlosser said the New York Telephone Co. suggested she take the receiver off the hook.

"But I can't do that," she said. "I might be getting some calls from my sister-in-law or somebody else in the family, or my husband might get some business calls."

Man Convicted of Manslaughter

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) - Fred H. Bartlett, 54, of Hot Springs, was convicted Wednesday of voluntary manslaughter in the Oct. 2 shooting of Mrs. Ruth Archer 37, of Malvern.

The jury, which reduced the charge from first degree murder, fixed the penalty at four years in prison. Circuit Judge P.E. Dobbs scheduled formal sentencing for next Monday.

Defense attorneys did not say whether they would appeal. The jury of six men and six women deliberated two hours and 53 minutes.

Hope Star Newsboys Enjoy Trip to Six Flags Over Texas

THIS IS A PICTURE OF THE LOG TRIP — and it was really a thriller. Along with the Star boys are some of the many friends they made during their trip through Six Flags.

THE STAR BOYS VISITED THE SPOT WHERE President John F. Kennedy was assassinated and then placed notes on a wreath that was located in a nearby park. Left to right: Charles Rateliff, Mark Gunter, Ronny Brown, Jimmy Westmoreland of Prescott, Robert Paul of Emmet, Robert Fravell and Doug Rogers. They were accompanied by Circulation Manager C. M. (Pod) Rogers.

THE RAILWAY ENGINE WAS LITERALLY INVADED by the Star carriers but the engineer didn't mind one bit. One of the Star carriers seems to be enjoying the visit a bit more than the others — Jim Westmoreland apparently had struck up an acquaintance with a newsgirl?

THIS PICTURE SHOWS THE BOYS WHEN THEY took a trip through the Mexico part of Six Flags. The Mexican flag at one time flew over Texas being one of the six.

NFO Action Would Hurt Arkansans

By J.C. TILLMAN
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The National Farmers Organization apparently picked a bad time to start its withholding action in Arkansas, to keep livestock off the market.

The organization maintains that if farmers hold back their cattle, they can force processors into signing contracts assuring a steady flow of livestock to market at predetermined prices. But Arkansas cattlemen plagued with drought that has dried up pastures and forced many of them to enter government programs for supplemental feeding, probably aren't in any mood to keep the cows on the farm.

Two recent surveys by the Associated Press revealed that cattlemen in the western half of the state are culling their herds rapidly to keep only the best animals, and are selling calves. The Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service said Wednesday it is ready to take orders for overment - owned corn from farmers in 13 counties at reduced prices.

Farmers in 33 other counties have applied to buy federal grain for supplemental feeding. The state has 43 counties under one government program or another designed to reduce pressure on the pastures. Some farmers are haying and grazing land previously taken out of production.

This costs them part of the "land bank" payment they would have gotten from the government for returning the land.

The NFO has called for the withholding action in 23 states, including Arkansas, saying it will be "by far the greatest show of bargaining power that American farmers have ever made."

The organization seeks minimum prices that were paid two years ago: $22.75 a hundred weight for No. 1 and No. 2 graded hogs, $32.45 for choice beef cattle and $29.45 a hundred weight for sheep.

At the Little Rock stockyards $17; standard to choice fed steers $16 to $23 and medium to prime sheep $12 to $14.

An Arkansas Farm Bureau Federation spokesman termed the cattle situation in the state "pretty precarious" now, without a withholding action.

The NFO, so far as can be determined, is not formally organized in Arkansas and any action the farmers take in going along with the request would be a sympathy movement.

The organization conducted a similar drive in 1962, but the result was not clearly determined.

The NFO claimed success for the drive in a 15-state area. Processors said they were able to get sufficient livestock for slaughter.

Prices at the market place did rise slightly however.

A Little Rock Stockyards spokesman said today it was too early to tell whether cattlemen are withholding stock. The yard processed 1,400 head of cattle two weeks ago but only 800 last week.

The withholding action was called Wednesday.

The spokesman said rains last week slowed the selloff of herds and that farmers were hoping for renewed pasture growth as fall approaches.

Birds aren't necessarily happy when they sing. It's song establishes a bird's claim to a certain territory and warns others to stay away and also it is part of the mating performance.

Bob Thomas at the Movies

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The Los Angeles police wish this was the weekend that wasn't. The Beatles invasion begins Sunday when the British quartet set down their chartered airplane at an undesignated field. The plan is for them to radio in their destination shortly before their arrival from British Columbia, thus to avoid a mob scene—they hope.

They will have a news conference, at the Cinnamon Cider night club in the San Fernando Valley, then leave for the concert at the Hollywood Bowl. Its 22,000 seats were sold out hours after they went on sale two months ago. One pair of down-front tickets reportedly went for $1,500 on the black market.

Turned down by leading hotels, the Beatles are said to be staying at the home of a television executive. They are scheduled to appear Monday night at a party attended by movie stars and others who are permitted to bring their children. All will pay $25 a head to benefit the Hemophilia Foundation. Security also surrounds the location of the party; it won't be known until hours before the affair.

The Beatles fly out late Tuesday or early Wednesday, not a bit too soon for the local peace officers.

Julie Andrews finished "The Sound of Music" but is staying on for the world premiere of "Mary Poppins" next week. She reports: "It's Walt Disney's first premiere since 'Snow White' — isn't that amazing?"

Besides presenting his most ambitious live-action film, Disney has a special reason for the premiere and champagne reception: to stimulate interest and donors for Cal Arts, the school of the arts he is helping to found.

7 Newsboys Take a Trip to Six Flags

Seven youths, winners in a Hope Star newsboy contest, took a trip to Six Flags Over Texas as their reward last weekend. The all expense trip included Charles Rateliff, Mark Gunter, Ronny Brown, Robert Fravell and Doug Rogers of Hope, Jimmy Westmoreland of Prescott and Robert Paul of Emmet. Here's the day by day story of their trip:

Saturday: Left Hope at 3 p.m. and went to the Across Country Inn at Fort Worth.

Sunday: Attended services at First Baptist Church of Dallas. This is one of the largest churches in the world with 13,000 members. Went by Southland Life, tallest building and took a look over the city. Went to the site of the Kennedy assassination, to Texas School Depository and then to Parkland Hospital. Looked over Love Field and then ice skating at the Texas State Fairgrounds.

Monday: Went back to Dallas for a sightseeing trip even though it was raining. Then went to Six Flags when it opened at 3 p.m. and stayed until 11 p.m.

Tuesday: Again went to Six Flags for picture taking and then to Fort Worth on a sightseeing trip. After lunch it was back to Six Flags from 5 to 11 p.m.

Wednesday: After staying up to 3 a.m. got up at 7 a.m. for a swim, more picture taking and then for the long ride home and back to their newspaper routes.

Martin Luther introduced the custom of lighting Christmas trees.

THE SWIMMING POOL AT ACROSS COUNTRY INN, Fort Worth, was where the boys spent a great deal of time. This picture was made at 7 a.m. after the youngsters had stayed up until 3 a.m.
